

ORPET TO TELL
STORY ON STAND

Will Recount His Relations with the Dead Girl—Hard Work to Get Jury.

Waukegan, Ill., May 18.—Selection of a jury in the trial of W. H. Orpet, University of Wisconsin student, charged with the murder of Marian Lambert, his former sweetheart, is proving a difficult task. When court opened yesterday, three tentative jurors had been selected from the first venire of 136 summoned, and a new venire had been called. A majority of the prospective jurors who have been examined were excused when they asserted they had formed opinions on the guilt or innocence of the accused. One of the most important developments in the case since it went to trial last Monday occurred Tuesday when Orpet's attorneys announced that their client would testify in his own behalf.

State Attorney R. M. Dady announced that Miss Celeste Youker, the DeKalb, Ill., school teacher to whom Orpet said he was engaged, will appear as a state's witness.

HAVE GOOD HEALTH
Take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Old Reliable Spring Tonic.

Don't let the idea that you may feel better in a day or to prevent you from getting a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to-day from any drug store and starting at once on the road to health and strength.

When your blood is impure and impoverished it lacks vitality, your digestion is imperfect, your appetite is poor, and all the functions of your body are impaired.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful blood tonic. It will build you up quicker than any other medicine. It gives strength to do and power to endure. It is the old standard tried and true all-the-year-round blood purifier and enricher, tonic and appetizer. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else has the same formula or ingredients. Be sure to ask for Hood's; insist on having it.—Adv.

Committee at Last Reaches a Decision to Bring the Matter to a Vote.

Washington, May 18.—The nomination of Louis D. Brandeis to the supreme court will be acted upon by the Senate judiciary committee next Wednesday. By unanimous consent the committee decided yesterday to vote at that time.

Members of the committee said there was no discussion yesterday regarding the probable result of the vote. The only determination was that the committee should dispose of the nomination and there will be no further discussion.

Opinion is divided among senators generally as to the probable outcome, although the majority believe that the committee will return the nomination without recommendation and let the Senate decide.

TIDE SETTING TO HUGHES

Justice Likely to Be Named
Early in the Balloting

LODGE TURNS
TO HIM NOW

Laugh at the Idea of a "Favorite Son" Coalition Against Him

Washington, May 18.—Cordial expressions from old line Republican leaders on the prospect of the nomination of Supreme Court Justice Charles E. Hughes came yesterday as a further indication that the justice is likely to be nominated early in the balloting at Chicago. Yesterday the prophecy among Republican leaders in Congress and Republican party managers was that Justice Hughes will be nominated before the 10th ballot.

The attempt on the part of some of the managers for the favorite sons to eliminate Justice Hughes by coalition appears to have demonstrated its futility. There is good reason to believe that some of the favorite sons now most prominently in the running are prepared to throw their support to the justice when their own strength in the convention has reached a maximum. Among those who are said thus to be prepared to support Justice Hughes are two, possibly three, from the Middle West and one from New England. The prospect is now that there will be a scramble among the favorite sons for the vice-presidency.

One of the most interesting reports heard at the capitol yesterday was that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge is strongly in favor of the nomination of Justice Hughes. Senator Lodge is said to be going on the theory that the demand for Justice Hughes "springs from the grass roots" and that the demand is too specific and obvious to be thwarted. Senator Lodge holds, it is rumored, that there are only two real possibilities before the country to-day, Theodore Roosevelt and Justice Hughes. The senator is said to be convinced that the people are demanding Justice Hughes in preference to Col. Roosevelt because of the justice's more stable temperament.

Cautious and semi-humorous observations are heard in old guard circles relative to the attempt of the favorite sons to "hog tie" their delegates. It is significant that their attempt to combine their interests is keenly resented among members of the old guard.

One of the most prominent of the regular Republican leaders in the Senate said yesterday:

"I vouch for the statement that there is no antagonism among the regular leaders of the Republican party. It does to talk about, but it doesn't exist. Because Mr. Root may be the first choice of some is not proof that Justice Hughes would be an unwelcome candidate. It looks as though Justice Hughes would be nominated."

"As far as any coalition on the part of the favorite sons is concerned, it is negligible if not ludicrous. The fact is the favorite sons can't hold their delegates after the complimentary balloting. They cannot bring about a deadlock and thus force a compromise on one of their own number. As the situation stands, it is hard to see that anything can happen to overcome the very marked lead of Justice Hughes."

While the move of the favorite sons to combine has aroused some bad feeling, their strength, as sized up yesterday, is not feared by any of the regular leaders, who seem convinced that after the demonstration for Col. Roosevelt has been recorded, the nomination will go to Justice Hughes. The leaders are, in fact, convinced that instead of a favorite son contest the justice the favorite sons will fall over themselves in a scramble to support the "people's candidate."

The report of an offer made by some men who pretend to have been representing Col. Roosevelt has caused some interesting reflections by politicians at the capitol. This report is that some leading Progressives desire to have Col. Roosevelt address the Republican convention before the platform is adopted as a token of complete and inalienable reunion.

40,000 VOTES
CAST FOR FORD

Remarkable Showing at Preferential Primaries—Penrose Carries State Ticket.

Philadelphia, May 18.—Henry Ford, pacifist choice for the next president of the United States, probably polled 40,000 votes in Tuesday's Philadelphia primaries, United States Senator Boies Penrose declared yesterday.

Senator Penrose, who retrieved his defeat of four years ago as leader of the Republican organization in Pennsylvania, based his prediction on incomplete returns from all parts of the state and advice received from the lieutenants.

Ford is running second to Governor Brumbaugh. Pennsylvania Democrats voted their approval to the Wilson administration when they elected A. Mitchell Palmer of Stroudsburg—regarded as the Wilson leader in the state, as national committeeman over Michael Libel of Erie. It was a decisive defeat for the old guard in Democracy, although in Philadelphia Palmer was second.

Senator Penrose carried his candidates to victory, with the exception of a few national convention delegates. Leader Sobel, a distinguished Jew, and Joseph McLaughlin, national head of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, were nominated as congressmen at large. Sobel is the first Jew ever placed on the Pennsylvania state ticket. He seemed to be supported by the Vore-Brumbaugh faction, as well as by the present incumbent Daniel F. Lefean of York.

BASEBALL NOTES

The game between the Giants and the Cubs, which was to have been played in Chicago Tuesday, will be played at that place Aug. 16. Saturday's postponed game will be played Aug. 17.

Maia's accident will keep him from all chance of honors in base running this season. In 1914 he stole 76 bases on a batting average of .239. Last season he stole 61 and batted much better.

Roger Peckinpaugh of the Yankees is improving greatly in his stick work over his previous showing. He has hit safely in 12 out of the last 14 games and has a batting average of .333.

The Yankees have made only five homers this season. Of these Baker has secured two, Pipp one, Baumann one and Peckinpaugh one.

Twelve men in the Red Sox squad have perfect fielding averages for the season. Pitcher Jones also has a perfect average for batting but this record looks better before mentioning the fact that while he has played in two games he has been at bat only once. The Braves have 10 men on the perfect fielding list and Fitzpatrick, a utility man, holds the high average in batting with .500. Fitz has been at bat 10 times and secured five singles, a double and a home run. The Red Sox as a team have a batting average of .232 and the Braves a team average of .263.

COL. BIDDLE TO WEST POINT.

Succeeds Col. Townsend as Superintendent.

Washington, May 18.—Col. John Biddle, engineer officer, U. S. A., at Baltimore, was yesterday appointed superintendent at West Point to succeed Col. Townsend July 1.

BUSINESS FOR ALL

Urges Assistance to Small Dealer and Manufacturer

Washington, May 18.—Co-operation between the federal trade commission and the business firms and commercial organizations with the object of standardizing trade and reducing the cost of production is recommended by President Wilson in a letter to Edward N. Hurley, vice-chairman of the commission, commending suggestions made by Mr. Hurley and made public yesterday at the White House. The president urges that the commission investigate industries, and, if it finds any "not healthy," suggest a "practical and helpful remedy."

A suggestion that trade associations of all kinds should be encouraged in every feasible way by the government, seems to Mr. Wilson a very wise one. "If we are to be an important factor in the world's markets we must be thorough and efficient in production," says the president. "I am very anxious to see you continue to co-operate with the business men of the country along the lines upon which you are working."

South America, Unable to Get Ships, Is Buying Machinery to Handle Its Own Raw Products.

New York, May 18.—Despairing of obtaining adequate tonnage to ship their exports and to bring them in return needed manufactured articles from the United States, numerous big shippers of Central and South America are now buying in this country machinery with which they may turn their raw products into manufactured articles for their own trade. According to Robert Lee Dunn, secretary of the All-American association, a Pan-American trade organization with headquarters here.

"During the past few months," Mr. Dunn said, "many prominent men of Colombia, Brazil, Argentina and other Latin countries who have desisted in their efforts to secure steamship service where-with they may be assured of a reasonably steady supply for their trade from the United States, as well as an outlet for their producers, have placed extensive orders for manufacturing machinery. One of these orders was for a complete shoe factory for Colombia, where

HISTORIC FLAG INCIDENTS

Barbara Frietchie and The Flag

Here we show the main incident in the story of Dame Barbara Frietchie, who, gray-haired old woman though she was, feared not to flaunt the beloved Stars and Stripes in the very faces of the enemies of her country as they marched through the streets of Fredericktown.

That the rebel leader, General Stonewall Jackson, recognized and honored her act as one of extreme bravery and patriotism, is shown by the lines of the verse in which he says: "Who harms one hair of yon gray head Dies like a dog; march on," he said.

Occasions constantly arise in every village and municipality when every patriotic American citizen should SHOW THE COLORS. Upon every national holiday and upon occasions of a purely local nature, the Stars and Stripes, floating to the breeze from every house and flagstaff, lends color to the occasion and fosters a spirit of patriotism as well.
